AUSTIN, TX - The Texas Real Estate Commission (TREC) is pleased to announce the appointment of a new public member to the Broker-Lawyer Committee. Freddie (Fred) Rangel, of San Antonio has been appointed to serve a five-year term effective immediately. The Broker-Lawyer Committee drafts and revises standard real estate contract forms to bring consistency to real estate transactions, provide safeguards to protect the principals in a transaction and minimize potential controversy.

Fred Rangel is the founder and president of ADCO Professional Services established 1991 and ADCO Master Builders, Inc, established in 2008. The company's strength has been private industry with a focus in the commercial construction division. Projects under the company's belt include hotel construction, restaurants, schools, and the Memorial to 9/11 in San Antonio. Mr. Rangel has been an active member of his community on the City of San Antonio Bond Committee, South Texas Business Fund, and Board of the Eckhart Crossing Home Owners Association. He Studied at the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia with Design of the Environment and the Wharton School of Business.

Mr. Rangel and the entire Broker-Lawyer Committee play a vital role in the process of reviewing real estate promulgated contracts which effect many types of real estate transactions in Texas. TREC welcomes the contributions of the entire Broker-Lawyer Committee and thanks them for their willingness to serve.
